The Gay Rights National Lobby

The Gay Rights National Lobby (GRNL) recently announced that former U.S. Representative Bob Bauman will serve as a lobbyist for Gay Rights National Lobby. Bauman will lobby for lesbian and gay civil rights legislation; work against gay discrimination in immigration; fight the anti-gay "McDonald Amendment" (offered every session by Representative Larry McDonald (D-GA) in an attempt to prohibit Legal Services Funding from being used for any pro-gay issue); and lobby for greater government funding for research of AIDS. Bauman will serve on a pro bono basis (that is, without financial cost to GRNL).

Bauman was chosen "One of Ten Most Admired Conservatives in the U.S." by readers of Conservative Digest Magazine in 1980 and is the founder of both the American Conservative Union and the Young Americans for Freedom. He served in Congress from 1973 to 1981.

In his recent speech before the American Bar Association Meeting in Atlanta, Bauman stated his unqualified support for lesbian and gay civil rights legislation and added, "Yes, I am still a political conservative. And yes, I am gay." Bauman cited many examples of discrimination against gays and stated:

Bauman's new involvement with GRNL is seen as an opportunity to show that the gay civil rights movement is not just for liberals. Gay civil rights legislation is consistant with conservative thought of less government intervention in private lives and individual rights.

"Your average attorney with a degree in economics andinternational relations and a doctorate in law, three years in the Senate of one of the several states and nearly eight years in the Congress would ordinarily have few problems in finding employment upon leaving public office--especially when the man he supported in three presidental elections finally wins the White House. A parliamentary wizard who could silence Bella Abzug and hog tie Tip O'Neill must have some utility in a Federal agency, and ambassadorial post or a Washington law firm, wouldn"t you think? The answer is 'no' if you are gay."

Civil rights, long an issue associated with blacks, now is a rallying point within the gay movement, and the alliance between the two groups is growing.

The Chair of the Congressional Black Caucus, Representative Julian Dixon (D-CA), as well as 16 others in the 20 member caucus, are co-sponsors of the Gay and Lesbian Civil Rights Bill. One-fourth of the bill's co-sponsors are black, the highest percentage of any caucus in Congress.

The bill, H.R. 2624, extends fair employment and fair housing laws to gay and lesbian people. It is the brain-child of the Gay Rights National Lobby, an organization established seven years ago to fight for gay issues in Congress.

"There has always been gay support for those fighting for civil rights and equality, including blacks, women, and religious groups," said Dixon. "Gays are strong civil libertarians."

"Discrimination based on sexual preference is still discrimination, and we oppose discrimination of any sort," Dixon stated.

Another co-sponsor of the bill is Representative Gus Hawkins (D-CA). His support is vital because he chairs the Employment Opportunities subcommittee, one of the subcommittees which will hold hearings on the bill.

"Support by the Black Caucus demonstrates that gay civil rights is becoming a mainstream issue of basic civil rights," said Steve Endean, Executive Director of GRNL. "Anyone who has been discriminated against knows the suffering it causes. The alliance between blacks and gays is very understandable."

The entire membership of the Black Caucus voted for increased federal funding for AIDS research, as well. AIDS, is the top fiscal priority of gay leaders.

GRNL is working with the National Coalition of Black Gays as well as Black and White Men Together to secure the co-sponsorship of the three remaining members of the Black Caucus, Representatives Harold Ford (D-TN), Katie Hall (D-IN), and Gus Savage (D-IL).

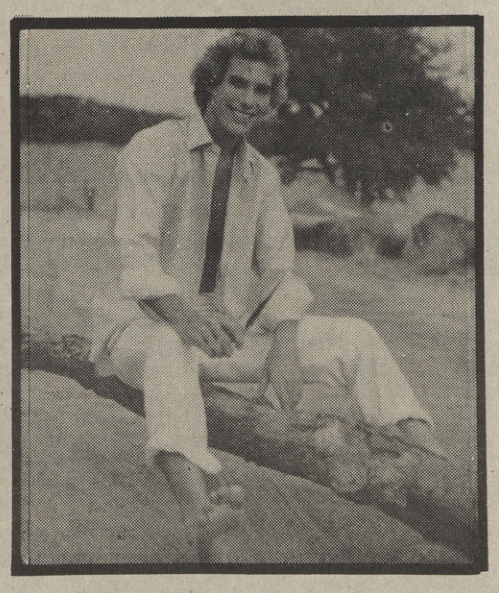
September's Cover Boy!



This month's cover model, Bruce Kingston, finds fulfillment in the waning days of summer by spending time at the beach. Bruce, an airline steward, loves travelling, snow skiing, cooking gourmet meals, and entertaining friends.

Older Gay Men Tend To Be Happy

Older gay men have long been a minority within a minority. It was assumed that gays became lonely and isolated as they grew older. Some believed that gay men became more sexually aggressive as they aged. Others believed that they were asexual. Many assumed that older gays were sick and unhappy. And the horror of aging was believed to strike even earlier for gays than for heterosexuals.

A recent study published by the University of Illinois Press indicates that being a homosexual may make it easier to grow old. GAY AND GREY: THE OLDER HOMOSEXUAL MAN by Dr. Raymond M. Berger, is the first major study of aging homosexual men.

Berger's findings have changed these beliefs. In fact, most older homosexuals live with a lover, a roommate or family members and few are socially isolated. A third of these men have been married and many had children. Older homosexuals were found to actually be more open about their sexual orientation than younger gays! The majority continue to have active sex lives, primarily with age peers.

Berger's findings point to the fact that gay men find a crisis of independence earlier in life than their straight counterparts. This means that gays are better able to adapt to losses of old age such as the loss of a lover without the dependence on family members for support.

FREEBIES!

You can get a discount at your gay hotel, your first drink free at the local bar, or 1/2-price meals at gay restaurants. A Chicago leather shop offers you a free 5-speed cock ring just for walking into the store, and a Kansas discotheque will give you a free T-shirt for the asking.

These and other freebies at gay places all over the US are available in the new edition of PLACES OF INTEREST, a gay guide which is published in Phoenix. The offers appear on coupons you can tear out of a special section at the back of the book.

PLACES OF INTEREST is available for $8 at gay locations throughout the US and Canada, and by mail from the publisher for $9 postpaid. Send to: Places of Interest, Order Dept., PO Box 35575, Phoenix, AZ 85069.

Using just a couple of the coupons can make back the cost of the book; and with greater usage, the savings can be substantial.

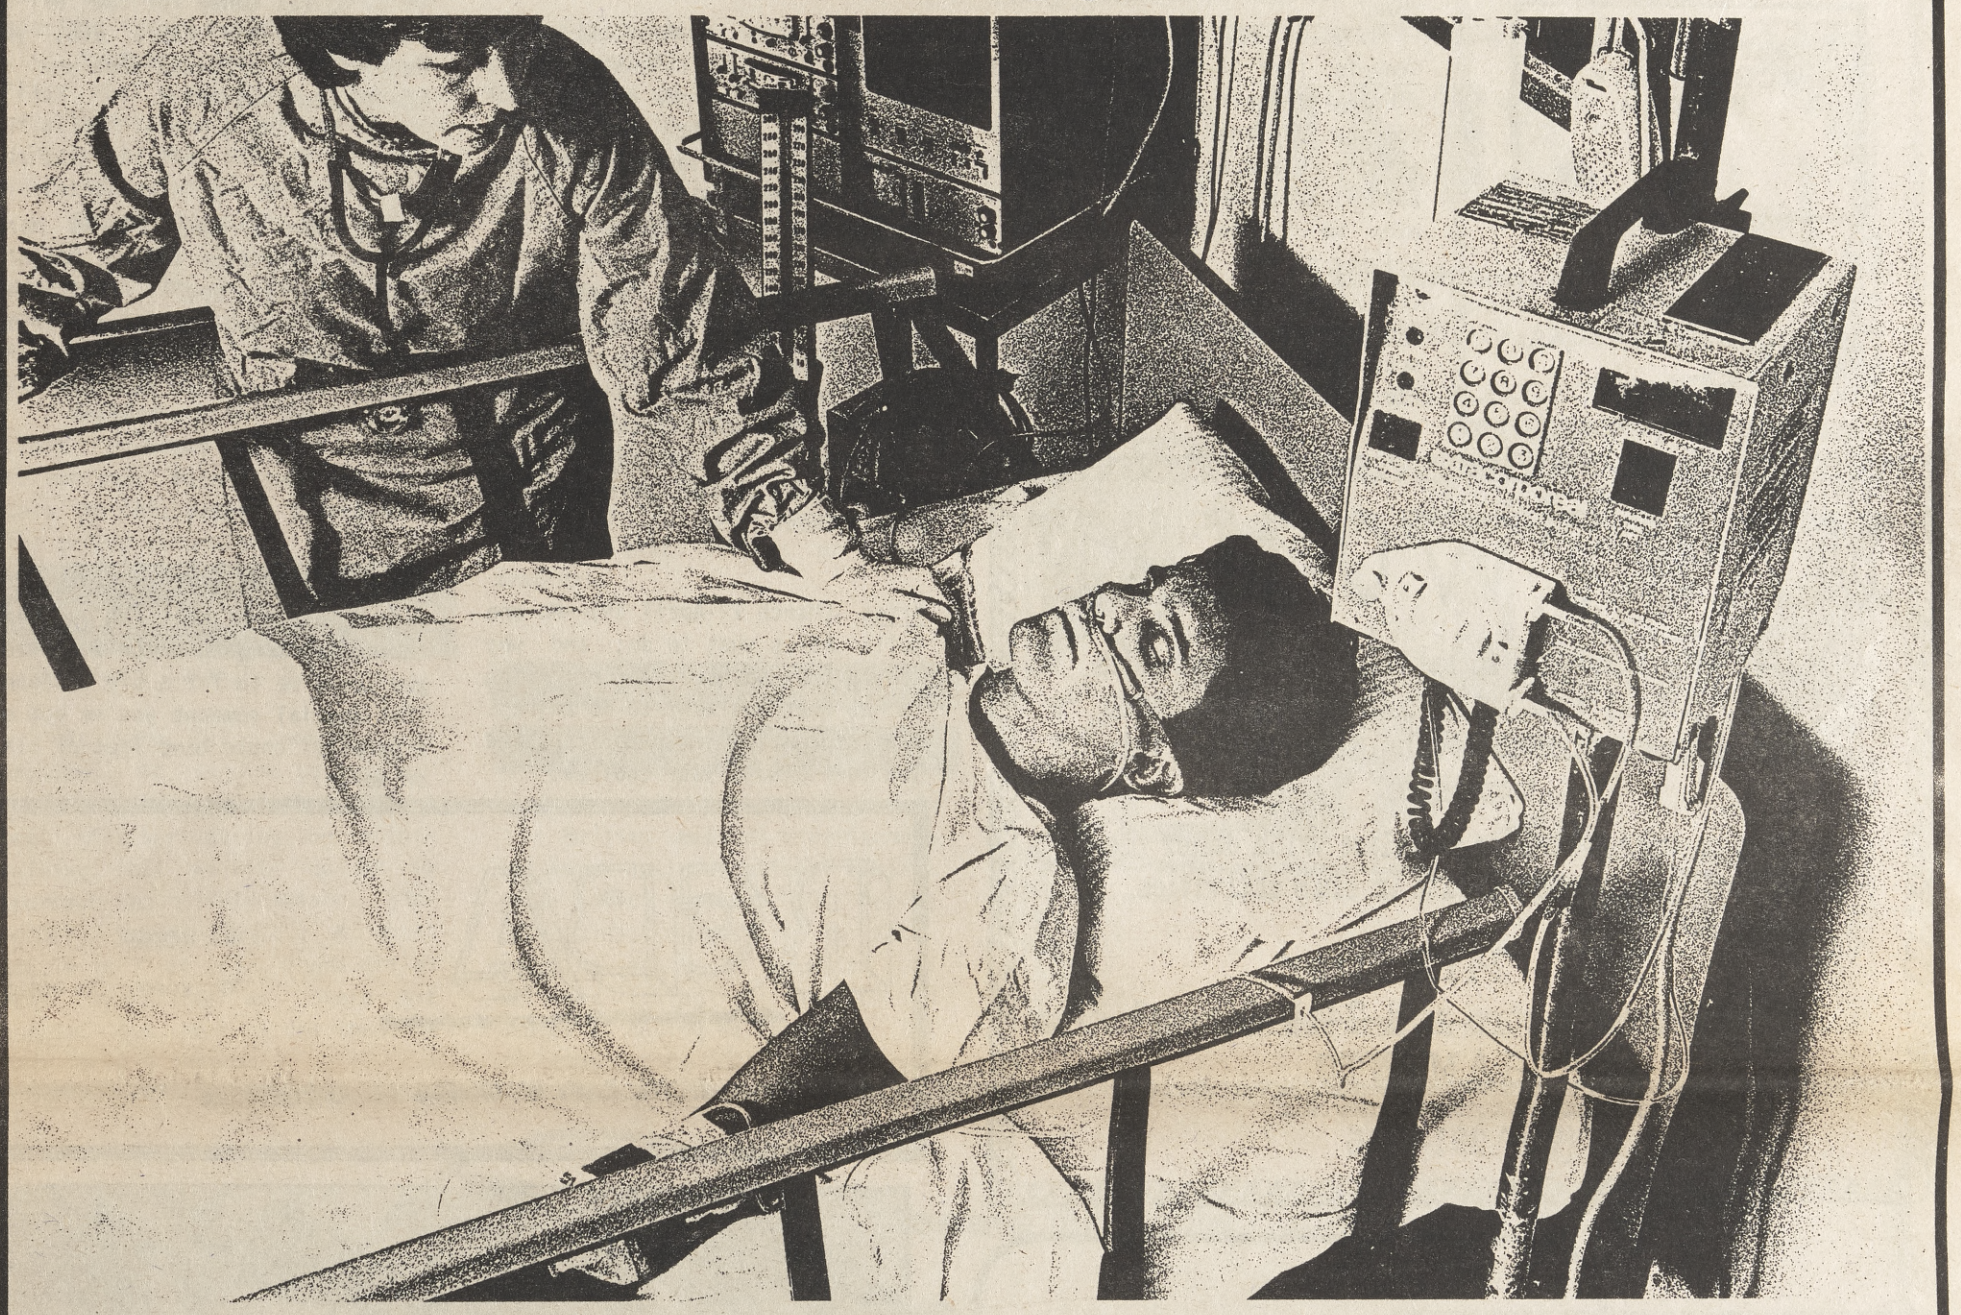
GAY PRESS ASSOCIATION

HE TOOK THE CHANCE OF GETTING HEPATITIS B— AND LOST.



NOW THE CONSEQUENCES ARE JUST BEGINNING. CHRONIC ACTIVE HEPATITIS, CIRRHOSIS ... OR DEATH.

You undoubtedly know someone who's had it. The "bad hepatitis" that can keep you in bed for weeks and out of a job for months—that can cause lifelong disability and even death from cirrhosis or cancer of the liver. Where do you get it? From people who have become carriers of the virus. Today, it is estimated that at least 100,000 gay men are carriers of the hepatitis B virus and spread the infection through intimate contact. That's the main reason why more than half of all gay men will sooner or later become infected.

How can you tell who's a carrier? You probably can't. Most carriers seem to be perfectly healthy, and many are themselves unaware that they harbor the virus.

Once you get hepatitis B, there's no specific treatment for it. But now there's something you can do to help protect yourself.

DON'T TAKE A CHANCE— CONTACT YOUR DOCTOR OR CLINIC AND ASK ABOUT THE HEPATITIS B VACCINE.

It is highly effective in those who receive all three shots. Do it today because you never know where or when you'll make contact with a carrier.

If you'd like more information about hepatitis B and the vaccine, call The American Liver Foundation at (201) 857-2626.

This message is brought to you as a public service by The American Liver Foundation.

Studies showed that the vaccine protected against infection caused by hepatitis B virus in 85% to 96% of those who received the required three shots.

Hepatitis B virus is an important cause of viral hepatitis, a disease mainly of the liver. Even mild forms of this disease may lead to serious complications and aftereffects, including liver cancer. There is no specific treatment for viral hepatitis.

Vaccination is recommended for persons who have a higher risk of becoming infected with hepatitis B virus because of frequent, close contact with infected people or exposure to body fluids from such people. It will not protect against hepatitis caused by viruses other than hepatitis B virus.

Because of the long incubation period for hepatitis B, it is possible for unrecognized infection to be present at the time the vaccine is given. The vaccine may not prevent hepatitis B in such patients.

In three studies involving 3,350 persons, the overall rate of adverse reactions did not differ significantly in those given vaccine and those given placebo (an inactive substance). As with any vaccine, broad use often reveals rare adverse reactions not observed during clinical trials.

Over 200,000 people are estimated to have received the vaccine since its release, and the vaccine continues to be generally well tolerated. Hepatitis B has a long incubation period, and unrecognized infection may already be present at the time the vaccine is given. Thus, reported cases of hepatitis are to be expected and do not appear to be caused by the vaccine. Reactions such as fever, nausea, vomiting, headache, and local pain have occurred. Joint pain has been reported; rash has been reported rarely. Serious illnesses affecting the nervous system—including Guillain-Barré syndrome—have been reported rarely, but no cause and effect relationship has been established.

Horoscopes

by Dr. Pat Larr

Virgo (August 23-Sept 22)--Happy Birthday! With the moon in your sign, you're especially attractive now. Suddenly everyone wants you to get into your birthday suit. Talk about dressed for success!

Libra (Sept 23-Oct 23)--It's sun-baked beaches and sun-tanned-bodies time as the sun enters your sign at month's end. Your social life heats up, but grab those rays while you can. Dark times are ahead.

Scorpio (Oct 24-Nov 22)--Time for a heart-to-heart with that special someone. Things just can't go on as they have been. You may be surprised by the results. You may even be touched--and in a very private place.

Sagittarius (Nov 23-Dec 21)--Nasty secrets, vicious rumors, evil lies, dirty tricks--yes, it all hits the fan in the next few weeks. Don't turn your back on anyone. They're all out to get you. Maybe you should just stay in bed for the next few weeks. (preferably not alone).

Capricorn (Dec 22-Jan 20)--Is that special someone making you feel tied down lately? You slave of love, you. Can't you discipline yourself for a change? Try not to get so bound up in your emotions.

Aquarius (Jan 21-Feb 18)--Venus retrograde means it's time to put your steamy love life on the back burner for awhile, and let the romantic problems boil over. But you're cooking with gas as far as career and finances go.

Pisces (Feb 19-March 20)--You've got the monoply on charm right now. A high roller, your love life takes several steps forward and you find yourself strutting down Boardwalk. Your sex appeal gives new meaning to the phrase "Community Chest."

Aries (March 21-April 19)--No one tells Aries what to do; and why should they bother? You're going to do what you want to do anyway. New information comes to light and you re-evaluate your choices.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)--You're in a party mood right now (when aren't you?). A variety of invitations comes your way--a game of pool at the local bar, judging a wet-jockstrap contest, an expensive dinner and some footsie under the table. Enjoy!

Gemini (May 21-June 20)--The twins do it in duplicate! Twosomes are highlighted right now. Whether it's a tea dance for two or an intimate dinner for a duo, you double your pleasure when you go one to (and on) one.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)--As Mars departs your sign and the moon's glow returns, you'll find that that funky mood you've been in is gone, and at last you see the light. Progress is made in all areas.

Leo (July 23-August 22)--Play it safe for awhile. You've been taking too many chances lately and you could be in for a big letdown. That special someone you've put on a pedestal could have feet of clay or worse.

FEATURES

Ms. Khabajh (who pronounces her name "cabbage") in her column "Cooking with Hedda" deals with recipes. She would be pleased to receive favorite recipes from her readers for kitchen testing and possible future publication.

Professor Kett in his column "Faux Pas" specializes in matters of etiquette and propriety as they pertain to the complexities and vicissitudes of the gay community.

Madame Eurus in her column called simply "Euphemia" is a generalist who advises about almost all types all problems except those concerning etiquette and/or cooking.

Readers are invited to submit their problems to our advice columnists. Please send your letters to this paper, addressed to the proper columnist.

Cooking With Hedda

By Ms. Hedda Khabajh, M.A.

As the fall season approaches, it is time to turn our attention to some of the recipes that will work during the entertaining that we will do as we approach the holiday season. (Remember, tempus fugit.) A great staple is liver pate. There are as many variations as there are people. But here is one that is sure to be a success.

Ingredients:
1 lb. chicken livers
¼ lb. bacon, or four strips
1 small onion
salt, pepper
grated nutmeg
a pinch each of rosemary and thyme
1 tbls. chopped parsley, fresh (or ½ tbls. dried parsley)
½ cup heavy cream
¼ cup brandy
¼ cup Madiera
1 package unflavored gelatin

Fry the bacon until the fat has rendered. Add the chicken livers and saute until they are firm but not hardened. They should not be too dark. Add the onion and gently continue cooking for about 15 minutes. Put all of this in a food processor and puree. Add the salt, pepper, rosemary, thyme, and parsley and blend until smooth. Dissolve the gelatin in warm water and mix with the cream, brandy, and Madiera. Add to the liver mixture and blend thoroughly. Put in a serving bowl or mold, chill, and serve with toasted bread slices or crisp crackers.

Haitians Resent AIDS Categorization

Haitian medical experts have initiated an international controversy about whether U.S. health officials acted unfairly in categorizing residents of Haiti and Haitians living in the United States as having an increased risk of contracting AIDS. Medical experts in Haiti accused the U.S. Public Health Service of using faulty and prejudiced research methods. The U.S. officials, however, stand by their categorizations.

Haitian Americans objected to being placed in the high-risk category since they maintain they became victims of discrimination. Their inclusion as a high-risk group causes unwarranted fear among people that they can contract AIDS through routine social contact.

Officials in New York City have removed Haitian Americans from the list of high-risk groups with the rationale that the number of cases is too small and that many Haitians victims are members of other high-risk groups.

DOING AMERICA WITH BOB DAMRON

Oregon ures millions of visitors who are attracted by its magnificent scenery - the Columbia River in the north, Crater Lake National Park in the south, and, of course, the spectacular Oregon coast. Lush forests, vast rivers, sky blue lakes, and snow capped mountains are everywhere. The Pendleton Round-up, a rodeo with all the pagentry of the Old West (September), Oregon Shakespearean Festival in Ashland (March-November), and Portland Rose Festival (June) are popular annual events.

The Portland gay scene now boasts about 25 gay bars, 10 of which serve mixed drinks. All are open until 2:30 AM. The Embers, at Broadway and Couch, is a super disco undergoing extensive renovation, which will feature entertainment, restaurant, and show-bar downstairs, with dancing upstairs. Popular women's discos are Club 927 and Other Side of Midnight, while men gather at Somebody's Place and Flossie's. Hot, macho cruise bars are C.C. Slaughter's at 1014 S.W. Stark and Family Zoo at 820 S.W. Oak. Portland's first leather bar is the Cell, below J.R.'s West at 10th and Everett. Ray's Ordinary Bar and Grille at 317 N.W. Broadway gets a good afternoon and cocktail hour business. J.R.'s Saloon and Joq's are friendly neighborhood beer taverns, and Darcelle XV features food and female impersonators.

Hobo's at 120 N.W. 3rd Avenue is a very busy new restaurant with full bar, good food, and entertainment. Wilde Oscar's at 318 S.W. 3rd offers lunches, nighttime snacks, and live theatre on weekends. Jonah's features fine seafood, and Skinner's serves breakfast until 2:00 PM. Other mostly gay restaurants include Roxy Hearts, Chuckles, Old Wives Tale, Victoria's Nephew (sandwiches) and Hamburger Mary's for organic fare and funk.

Continental Club Portland at 531 S.W. Park is the All-American bath for the All-American city catering to clean cut young professionals and preppies. The Majestic Hotel & Club Baths at 303 S.W. 12th entertains some mature hunks into hot fantasies, while the older Olympic Steam Baths have two locations. I usually stay at the centrally located Riverside West, which doesn't have a pool, or the Portland Motor Inn which does.

Eugene, with a population of 110,000, is Oregon's second largest city and home for 17,000 students at the University of Oregon. Club Riviera at 39 W. 10th is the oldest and largest lesbian bar in the state, and offers men's nights on Thursdays. For guys, the fun bar is Cassidy's Tavern, opposite the Campus at 539 E. 13th. Perry's on Pearl, downstairs at 959 Pearl St., is a busy multi-racial, unisex disco. I stay at the Valley River Inn, overlooking the beautiful Willamette River, and for pleasant dining suggest you try the Excelsior Cafe, Sweetwater's, and Moreno's Mexican Restaurant.

Salem, with less that a hundred thousand inhabitants, is not the most exciting state capital in America but it does have a gay bar Cassady's at 1930 State St. S.E., which is equally popular with both sexes. Stay at New Kings Inn and try dining at the Colonial House. The marble Capitol Building, of modern Greek design, is one of the five most unique State Capitals in the U.S.A. There are no other all-gay bars in other parts of Oregon, but you can find some action in Corvalis, home of Oregon State University, Ashland, Coos Bay, Lincoln City, and other towns. See the new '84 Address Book for more detailed information and cruisy areas.

From the days of the Lewis and Clark expedition in 1805, and the first wave of pioneers to traverse the Oregon Trail, Oregonians have remained rugged individualists. If Portland, and especially the smaller towns, are not as sophisticated as other large West Coast cities, the Beaver State more than makes up for it in other ways. For outdoors people, nothing can beat rafting down the Rogue River, skiing Mt. Baker, angling for Chinook Salmon along 15,000 miles of streams and rivers, hunting or camping in the Cascades, or sunbathing on the secluded beaches along the fabulous Oregon Coast. The great Pacific Northwest has a lot to offer. Don't miss it!

CROSSROADS

BRIDGING COMMUNITIES THROUGHOUT AMERICA

Manhattan

A leading star of the gay rodeo circuit, Lee Kittelson, recently rode his horse through Manhattan streets in an attempt to raise money for AIDS research. He saddled up his horse at Madison Square Garden and galloped through the busy traffic on Eighth Avenue to hold a news conference in Central Park.

The Denver resident, a handsome, authentic cowboy and rodeo champion, is a celebrity in the gay community. He used to compete in traditional rodeos, but now stars on the newly formed gay rodeo circuit. He was this year's winner at the gay rodeo in Reno and third runner-up in Denver's gay rodeo. He has recently been named Grand Marshall of the World's Toughest Rodeo, scheduled October first at Madison Square Garden. (All ticket proceeds from this major gay event will go toward AIDS research.)

According to Kittelson, "If you didn't know I was gay, you'd think I was a good guy. I'm easy going, I smile a lot, and everybody likes me. I want to show the world not all gays can be stereotyped. I'm not trying to change the image of John Wayne."

San Antonio

Fandango III, The Bonham Exchange's annual Labor Day weekend bash, will benefit the Alamo Human Rights Committee (AHRC) this year. The big party is set for Saturday, September 3 from 9 PM until dawn. Special guest John Berge of Studio One in Hollywood will DJ in the gymnasium of San Antonio's most uptown bar.

A cover charge of $8 at the door or $6 in advance includes free beer. A portion of each admission goes to AHRC. Also, a souvenir button will be available for $1 which will allow an admission of $6 if worn when entering. All button proceeds benefit AHRC.

Fandango III promises to be a great party and will help San Antonio's newest gay organization and only gay political group.

San Diego

Nearly 170 women showed up and donated blood to establish a gay community blood fund as a show of unity in the face of the AIDS crisis. The day-long blood drive was organized by the Women's Caucus of the San Diego Democratic Club with the theme: Blood Sisters, Roll up your Sleeves.

Blood banks are currently requesting homosexually active men to desist voluntarily from donating blood because gay men are currently in the highest risk category for contracting and transmitting AIDS. The effort to eliminate variables related to AIDS transmissions has eliminated the opportunity for gay men to accumulate financial discounts for blood and blood by-products, or to help other gay men who might need transfusions because of an accident or operation.

Baton Rouge

Incidents of picketing in front of two gay bars in Baton Rouge by a fundamentalist religious group resulted in a meeting between gay activists and police officials.

The Word Fellowship Church has been leading a group of approximately 40 to 50 people in a weekly Saturday night vigil in front of the Mirror Lounge and The Dock II, two gay establishments in the downtown area. These people mill around the outside of the bars and attempt to make patrons who are entering or exiting see the "error of their ways."

The gay community was fearful that the fundamentalists relayed their message with such zeal that the whole situation had the potential of violence.

There was a strong need to keep the situation non-violent. Both gays and police expressed a need to work together to achieve this. Police officials indicated that the fundamentalists have the right to freedom of speech, but they do not have the right to enfringe on the civil rights of others. Police officials made it clear that all parties involved in this situation would be treated equitable.

Berkeley

The Berkeley Gay Men's Health Collective provides free confidential V.D. testing and treatment, by and for Gay Men. Clinics are held every Sunday at The Berkeley FREE Clinic, 2339 Durant Ave. (at Dana) from 7:00 until 9:00 PM. They also do screening at The Pacific Center, 2712 Telegraph, (415) 841-6224, the first Monday of each month 7-9 PM. Screening clinics are also held at The Steamworks Baths, 2107 4th St., (415) 845-8992, the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of the month 7-11 PM. Call (415) 644-0425 for more information.

The Gay Men's Health Collective is made up of trained medics, paraprofessionals, and professionals. They believe in health care that involves the client in the decision-making process and that there should be a strong emphasis on education. The collective also believes that quality health care is a right and not a privilege.

Services have been provided for seven years and the group is non-profit and tax-exempt.

commodation on the basis of sexual orientation was rejected by a vote of 158 to 134. Delegates who voted the measure down referred to homosexuality as deviant sexual behavior and expressed concern that felonious conduct should not be encouraged.

Kansas City

The Kansas City Health Department held an organizational meeting for an AIDS Task Force in August. Many people were invited to become members, including members of the KC AIDS Project.

According to a letter received from Dr. Gerald L. Hoff, Chief, Division of Communicable Disease Control, there is a great need for such a task force. There have been reported cases of AIDS in KC but the citizenery is bombarded daily by the media to the extent that confusion and anxiety has resulted. The KC AIDS Task Force will present the community with a factual source of information and resources to alleviate anxieties and to provide assistance and support for AIDS victims and associates.

The Elusive G Spot

Researchers at the medical center at the University of California at San Diego believe they have found clinical evidence of the elusive G Spot in women. This is an erogenous zone that is reputed to exist in many women.

Studies at the medical center indicate the presence of glandular tissue in the front wall of the vagina between the bladder and the urethrea. This is believed to prove the existence of a gland in women which is eqivalent to the prostate gland in men.

The existence of a female prostate gland would mean that another special erogenous zone exists in women that some find sexually pleasurable and capable of prolonging orgasms. Researchers believe all women may have a prostate gland.

Columbus

Recent activities by the police department have upset the gay community in Columbus, Ohio. Police cars recently descended on a local gay bar, as a result of surveillance of an upstairs darkened room in which the police allege sexual acts were permitted and took place.

According to one person arrested, police entrapped six men in the upstairs room; the six are all charged with, among other things, masturbating an undercover officer.

There have been complaints from those arrested about extensive force by the police. Also, victims claim that they were not allowed to make phone calls for more than five hours after being arrested. One victim claims that he was not made aware of the charges against him until the time he was released even though he asked officers numerous times why he was being held. (That victim was not charged with any sex-related crime, but rather with disorderly conduct.)

Gallup Poll Reveals Attitudes Toward Gay People Have Changed

A recent Gallup Poll revealed that American attitudes toward gay people have changed. The poll asked Americans about their feelings relative to gay persons as affected by the AIDS crisis. Twenty-one percent of those responding said they are less comfortable about having gay friends because of AIDS than they were before the disease. Also, fewer people than before believe that homosexuality is an acceptable lifestyle. But more people than previous support increased employment rights for gay men and lesbians.

Press that uniform, shine those boots. it is time to PARTY!

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

If you have a copy of last month's PATLAR GAZETTE around, pull it out. Now turn to Bob Damron's article Although the Cabaret is a fine bar and the owners are fine people, it is not a "resort", it is a bar and only a bar, and not "the bar" of the area as implied. Sunset Point is the only gay "resort" in the area.

Member of Clearlake G.B.A.

Hollywood

In Hollywood, the Alliance for Gay Artists, a group of more than 300 gay men and women who work in the entertainment industry, will conduct its third annual Media Awards on Sept 19 at the Huntington Hartford Theatre.

Robert Preston, an award winner last year for his portrayal of the uncompromising homosexual in VICTOR/VICTORIA, will host the proceedings. Among the presenters will be Eileen Brennan, Lynn Redgrave, Loretta Swit, Vivian Blaine, and Rita Moreno. Presentations will be made to motion pictures, TV episodes, plays, actors, and writers.

The alliance assists producers dealing with gay themes, monitors productions that focus on gay life styles, and works to eliminate gay stereotypes.

Minnesota

A regional "Positive Gay and Lesbian Identity Conference" will be held on the Minneapolis campus of the University of Minnesota October 7-8, 1983. It will be co-sponsored by Lesbian and Gay Community Services and University Lesbian/Gay Community.

The conference will provide an atmosphere of learning, support, and wholeness for lesbian and gay men. Speakers, workshops, and presentations will cover a broad range of experiences--social, physical, emotional, spiritual--as related to gay and lesbian lifestyles.

Although primarily directed to gays and lesbians, the conference will also be of interest to family members, mental- health professionals, and other concerned individuals.

For further information contact: Patrick Clayton or Patricia Baldwin at (612) 827-5614.

Solano County

Les Biens: Women Preferring Women, is Solano County's lesbian support group. Organizers of this women's group report an overwhelming response to its founding. Over fifty women have called and participated in group activities from as far as Napa and Contra Costa Counties.

Organizers of the lesbian support group encourage single gay woman, women couples, lesbian mothers, disabled lesbians and lesbians of color to participate in this much needed community service. The group is non-profit and there are no dues required. Meetings are confidential and discreet; locations vary. For more information call the message/information number in Vallejo at (707) 643-0626.

Concord

Diablo Valley Community Center, located at 1818 Colfax Street in Concord, sponsors a variety of programs for the Contra Costa gay community.

A support program for people who have AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) and for those who are worried about AIDS is now available. The first informational meeting was held in August and future plans call for weekly support meetings, as needed, and as the availability of professional counseling permits.

Telephone (415) 827-2960 for more information about the AIDS meetings or other programs which include a support group for men conducted each Friday night and monthly rap groups for women.

Modesto

August has been a busy month in Modesto and should put to rest the question that is sometimes asked - Is there a gay Modesto?

Gay women and men that live in Modesto are proud to shout the answer - yes! There are, in fact, six organizations: The Stanislaus Owl Empire Court, Stanislaus Gay Alliance (SGA) Celebration, a sports team, and Gay Alcoholics together. There are two popular gay bars and a coffee house. One of the most popular events of the year was held August 20 when SGA hosted Spaghetti Mama. The Owl Empire also hosted several events during the month including a picnic at Tuolumne River Region Park.

San Francisco

The women's computer literacy project has designed a course for those who know nothing about computers and prefer to learn in a women-centered environment. At the end of the course, students will know what a computer can and cannot do; will be able to operate a microcomputer with confidence; and will be able to read and understand most operations manuals for computer hardware and software systems. Participants will also understand the difference between various microcomputer systems so that they can shop for the correct system to meet their personal, business, or organizational needs. And, if they wish, students will be able to continue on their own to develop more advanced skills such as programming or word processing.

The course offers two options. Both feature numerous demonstrations, active class participation, and hands-on microcomputer experience. Class size is limited to ten participants and there is one computer per student.

Upon completing the course, students may rent 10 hours of computer time, for practice and play, at $2 per hour.

For additional information, write: Woman's Computer Literacy Project, 1195 Valencia Street, San Francisco, CA 94110.

Reno

The Knights of Malta has scheduled its Ninth Anniversary Celebration September 24-25, 1983 in Reno. Planned activities for the weekend are as follows:

Saturday, Noon to 1:00 PM

Noon to 1:00 PM - Introductions

1:00 PM to ?

Poker run. What is a poker run? Each bar will receive playing cards. Each drink brought will entitle the buyer to a card. (Only participants signed up for the run will receive a card upon the purchase of a drink.) The run will move from participating bar to participating bar. At the end of the run, the person with the best poker hand (with matching cards) is the winner. There is a time limit in each bar, which will be explained at the function. The winner of the Poker Run will be announced at the anniversary show at the Imagine That starting at 11:00 PM that evening.

11:00 PM to ?

Whorehouse "Knights" Review.

This is a show sponsored by the Knights of Malta in conjunction with the 8th Silver Dollar Court of Nevada, with the proceeds divided equally between the court and the Knights of Malta to promote unity and charity within the Gay Community. Included in this show will be the passing of the gavel to the new officers of the K of M for the 1983-84 term, a fun show and awards. Also, the first annual Stud of the Night and Lady of the Evening contest will be held.

Participants will appear on stage as virgins; one hour later as whores and studs. Winners in each category will be determined by a panel of judges. Prizes and trophies will be awarded.

Sunday, 1:00 PM to ?

Lumberjack Festival.

Log sawing, nail pounding, and whatever lumberjacks do.

Louisiana

The Gay Political Action Caucus (LAGPAC) in Louisiana recently established a statewide AIDS lobbying network. Individuals and organizations in eight cities in Louisiana have agreed to work together to generate constituent pressure for increased research and monitoring funds and support services for persons with AIDS.

AIDS, is of great concern to the gay community in Louisiana. Although only a small number of cases has been diagnosed locally to date, medical researchers fear the number will quickly rise.

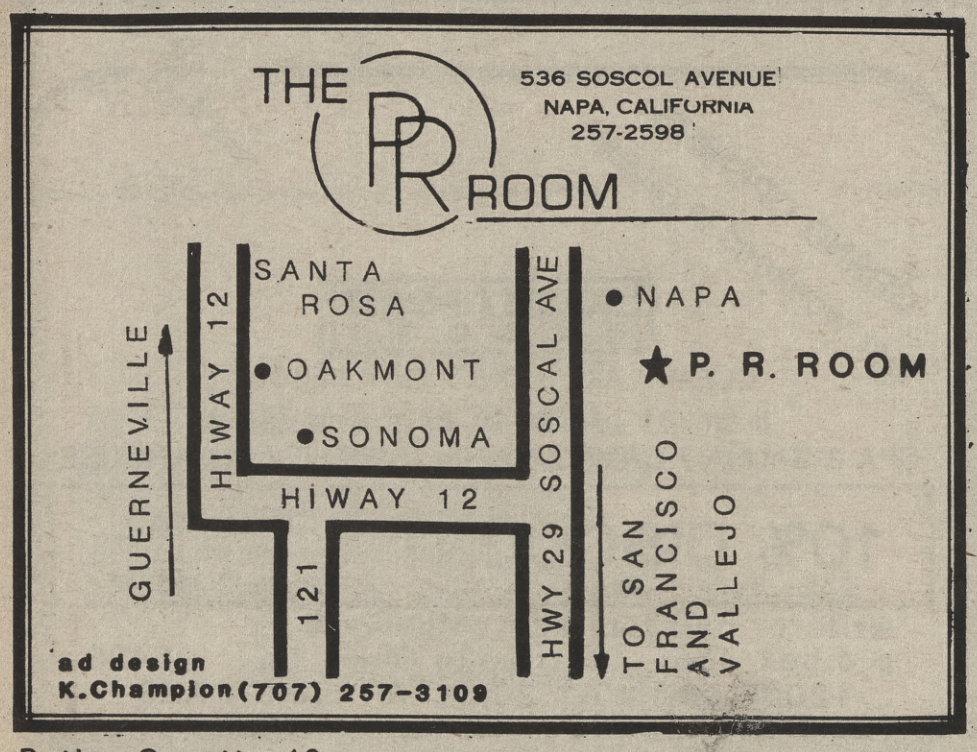
The AIDS lobbying network works closely with the AIDS Project of Gay Rights National Lobby (GRNL).

The network, will be concentrating on additional funding for 1984, an increased responsiveness by Federal Agencies, and obtaining support for local and national education and service to persons with AIDS.

For information, contact Alan Robinson, (504) 586-8107.

Kyoto

At the Fifth International Congress of Immunology, which was held recently in Kyoto, Japan, an American medical researcher, Dr. Kwong Y. Tsang of the Medical University of South Carolina, revealed that the drug Isoprinosine that helps restore the immunity to aging people may also be useful in treating people suffering with AIDS.



Sacramento did it again! Yes, we did!! It took our own Randy Gray (Wreck Room) to go up to the Reno Gay Rodeo and show them what a real cowboy is like. Yes, Dear Hearts, our own Randy Gray not only won the Mr. National Gay Cowboy Contest, he was also named the All-Around-Cowboy of the four-day event. Than you, Randy, for bringing the honors back to Sacto. And thank you, Wreck Room, for producing this speciman of manhood. My congrats go to all of you who participated in the above events...Are you one of those who are swayed or persuaded by someone else's opinions and biases? If you are, it's really too bad. If because of some critic's opinion, you have not seen the play called THE ENCLAVE, now playing at the Chautauqua Play House, possibly because of some critic's opinion, I feel sorry for you because you are missing a damn good play. If you don't believe me, just ask anyone who attended the recent special benefit showing for AIDS/KS Foundation. Friends, remember, we are not dealing with the so-called "best of Broadway." We are "community theater." So do yourself a favor, go see it, and make up your own mind. I am sure when the EMPAC awards are announced next year that Harvey will be nominated. Trust me...Hey you gay bowlers out there, don't forget that the River City Bowlers Fall League will be starting either September 18 or 25. They need more teams and bowlers, so if you're interested, contact Mike at 448-2952 or Norm at either 443-6440 or 448-2437...I've been asked by the AIDS/KS Foundation to extend a special thank you to those who pledged or donated the $1100 at the Aids Forum held at Paul's Lounge in Reno recently which was put on by Dr. Elizabeth Harrison, Dr. Sandy Pomerantz, and Jackson Peyton...The dinners & brunches are going over big at the Kay Street. While you are there dining, check out the beautiful art work that adorns the walls...Bwy/Ltd, too, is turning out some good brunches & dinners. Also good live music on Wednesday nights...Have you checked out Scandals yet? It's catching on. Located right behind BoJangles...The Forum has a calendar full of events for Sept. Check it out...So has the Diamond Butterfly...The Stumble Inn is starting a Football Night on Sept. 5. Hotdogs for fifty cents. A Wednesday Pool Tournament with prizes. Friday & Saturday they will have a Champagne-Drawing-Western-Hat Night. No cover. Prizes. Sept. 15, starting at 6 PM, they will have a Miller Draft Night. Free T-shirts. NOTE: The new hours for the Stumble Inn is 2 PM til 2 AM...Stop by the Mercantile Saloon and check out the face lift. New lighting, mirrors behind the bar that keep you humble, a new bartender (Steve), a new doorman (Doug), both hunks...The Forum is now under new mgt. Congrats & best wishes to Chuck Benz and Tom Hunter who have taken over the reins. And it's nice to see Joe Migliaccio out and about again...Anna Marie's is still packing them in on Friday & Saturday nights...The Power Plant has a calendar full of events for September starting with tea dances every Sunday starting at 5 PM. Free pool every Monday & Tuesday. Fifty-cent bottle beer every Wednesday night. Every Thursday night a live DJ, no cover. Every Friday & Saturday, live DJ, one buck cover...Coming up at the Merc, Chuck & Marci present: GNIE's monthly bingo, Monday, Sept. 12, 8 PM, many fine prizes including a Blackout Prize of a trip for two to the Russian River...By the way, Sacramento Athletic Games Association (SAGA) is looking for coordinators for various events at the 1986 Gay Olympic Games in San Francisco. Interested individuals who have organizational and leadership abilities who can make a commitment for at least three years should contact Norm at 443-6440, Linda at 457-5509, or Chris at 391-4386...Aunt Rose (Scandals), by the time you read this paper, you will have celebrated your big six-o. However, I want to tell you something: You don't look over sixty, but you used to. Meow...Mile L. (Bwy/Ltd), we miss you; hurry back, but take care of yourself. Kelly, glad your summer vacation in Mexico was enjoyable. Marci (Merc), I am glad you kept your plaid, wash & wear wedding gown. It sure came in handy for your second time around, but your Bible-pressed bridal bouquet was a bit much, hon. John L (from Placerville, of all places), remember, when wearing only a towel at the baths, it's impossible to successfully give the impression that one doesn't quite know where one is or quite how one got there or quite what one is supposed to do now that one is there. Tell me, assure me, reassure me please that you're kidding. David P (from Davis), standing on a corner at 18th & Castro at 4:30 AM and being asked by a passing male, "What ya doin'?", your reply, "Waiting for a bus," is not to be believed. A little advice to Bob.R, when in an unfamiliar town, the best way to find gay action is to ask a hotel desk clerk, a taxi driver, a telephone operator, or a hair dresser, such people know everything. But never ever ask a vice cop...What's this I hear about Randi (Merc), babysitting an apartment and proceeding to wreck it? Not only that, but she forgot that she had put food into the oven (burnt offerings, anyone?) Remember, Randi, never pull on anything that's semi-attached; and wearing plate glass is not one of your better drags.

BEING A MAN

I haven't ever wanted to be
What people have always been telling me
Is a man.
The type of man they want me to be
Has little of the qualities that I would see
In a man.
Yet I must conform, and be their way
If I want to be considered "straight" not "gay",
But still I disagree with what they say
Is a man.

EUPHEMIA

Dear Euphemia,

Now with the AIDS scare, everyone keeps saying that we all ought to start using rubbers again. I say "again" because I used to use them years ago when it was stylish to pretend to be hetero. And way back then it was all so easy because a rubber was a rubber was a rubber and all one had to do was put a quarter in a machine in the men's room.

How does one buy rubbers these days? Do you ask for specific sizes? What about colors? And I've even heard that you have to indicate material and style. It's all simply too much. I'd die of embarrassment if I had to specify all these things to a sales clerk.

Your advice please.
Barney

Dear Barney,

Actually, your letter brings up a good point. Today there really are so many different rubbers out that as much as you hate to you'll simply have to browse the shelves and make your choice. There are rubbers that heighten sensation or restrict it. There are colors from puce to prune. There are shapes to tickle any fancy.

One of the most sought-after answers of all these days is to the question: How does one go about donning a rubber in such a way as to maintain both sexual spontaneity and the keen edge of foreplay? Wouldn't it be nice to have some answers to that question?

So, if any of you guys out there have a "most successful way" of putting on a rubber, won't you please share it with the rest of us? Please send a description of your method to me c/o PATLAR GAZETTE. In a future column, I"ll try to publish the best ones; after I"ve kitchen tested them, of course.

THE PERIPATETIC PATLAR

PEOPLE by Kris

Mistresses Kathy and Carole, political advocates, staunch supporters of female domination (SM behavior), have embarked on yet another far-out venture. Citing a need to return to earth, they have relinguished their possessions and embarked on their journey; their ultimate destination, Tibet!

"The purpose," Carole says, "is to fulfill our own spiritual enlightenment. One gets so involved with material things, when they are taken away, what do you have; usually insanity."

Carole was introduced to S & M in England where she was born. She traveled to the United States 14 years ago and served as a slave for two years to a gay man.

Carole says she learned her lifestyle the right way. "Don't do drugs, don't drink." Kathy stresses they firmly believe in mutual consent. "S & M is not forced; that's brutality. Our submissives get what they want. We touch them spiritually and emotionally and then we beat them."

The fine line between what is lewd and lascivious is being challenged by S & M groups. Carole and Kathy have been working with the Janus Society in the San Francisco Bay Area to help redefine S & M conduct as a mutually consented preference.

Faux Pas

By Ed E. Kett

Dear Mr. Kett,

Is my lover my husband or my wife?

Jarvis

Dear Jarvis,

That depends if he likes to be on top or bottom. Actually, as with many areas of gay manners, there is no set standard yet. If your lover is complaining about your table manners at a large dinner party, some might refer to him as your wife. And if, at the same dinner party, he happens to cause a scene when he warns one of the invited guests to keep his mitts off you, some might refer to him as your husband. Many lovers use the husband/wife tag as a running gag between them. I prefer to avoid sexism and refer to my lover (when I have occasion to have one) as my boyfriend, and prefer that he refer to me as his.

More Euphemia

Dear Euphemia,

I was circumcised when I was a baby. I simply cannot stand myself like I am and have never forgiven my parents for allowing my mutilation. Do you think that corrective plastic surgery is possible? Please hurry up with your answer because I think that I may be falling in love again; my previous love affairs were all fiascos, most likely because of my abnormal penis.

Peter

Dear Peter,

My personal motto is: It ain't the meat, it's the motion that counts. I've run into my share, goodness knows, of both cut and uncut gents and have never noticed that either condition is superior when it comes to performance.

Neither have I ever noticed a circumcised man showing anything that could possibly be construed as mutilation. That's not to say that it wouldn't be possible for a clumsy physician to botch a job.

I did read once about a plastic surgeon somewhere in Texas who would, for a Texas-size fee, "restore" foreskins; so apparently it can be done.

As to your new lover, ask him what he thinks of your instrument. Five will get you ten that if he loves the rest of you he loves your cock just like it is. Undoubtedly there's more to you than just your member. Don't forget. Man does not live by head alone.

PATLAR GAZETTE

VOICE OF GAY AMERICA

ADVERTISERS!

The PATLAR GAZETTE can be YOUR bridge to the gay community!

You can reach thousands of gay women and men throughout America by advertising in the PATLAR GAZETTE.

Gay people want to patronize gay supportive businesses, but need to know their locations.

Remember, many gay people are affluent and tend to spend significant amounts of money.

Let the PATLAR GAZETTE help increase your business revenues.

Contact the PATLAR GAZETTE Sales Representative to discuss our reasonable advertising rates. Write or call today.
